Fort Atkinson Police Recognize City Crossing Guards

Fort Atkinson, WI, The State of Wisconsin has marked January 12-16, 2015 as Wisconsin Adult School Crossing Guard Recognition Week. During this week of recognition school children and adults alike are encouraged to extend appreciation to their local crossing guards for the important work they do each day.

The City of Fort Atkinson Police Department would like to take this opportunity to recognize the cities dedicated crossing guards. Crossing Guards in our community brave the elements and traffic each day to ensure the children of our city are safe on their travels to and from school. The crossing guard team consisting of Georgia Achilli, Nancy Anderson, Cindy Davis, Leo Kern, Walter Melendez, John Satterlee, Audrey Postel, Theresa Clapper and Rhonda Strike are proven assets to the city and the children of this community. Chief Adrian Bump stated “The city is fortunate to have these safety focused professionals who take pride in the job of safeguarding our children.”

During this week of recognition, please take the time to thank your local crossing guards as you pass them on the street.
