Fort PD Recognizes National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week

Fort Atkinson, WI: April 12-18, 2015 is National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week. The Fort Atkinson Police Department proudly recognizes the dedicated men and women who stand ready to help citizens in need every day.

As we celebrate this week of recognition, it has never been more apparent that our community's emergency dispatchers are a critical part of public safety in Fort Atkinson and beyond. Telecommunicators are the vital link between those in need of help and those who are responding to render aid. The Fort Atkinson Police Department's Dispatch Teams hard work and dedication is instrumental in saving lives and helping maintain a safe community. They are the key people who work hard to ensure both the safety of the community and the safety of the officer, firefighter or EMT on the street, stated Chief Adrian Bump.

As the first person on the scene of every crime, fire, and medical emergency, the 9-1-1 dispatcher continues to be an invaluable resource. The Officers of the Fort Atkinson Police Department salutes its team of professionals who are so committed to excellence.
