Under Wisconsin law a request for access to a public record "is deemed sufficient if it reasonably describes the requested record or the information requested. However, a request for a record without a reasonable limitation as to subject matter or length of time represented by the record does not constitute a sufficient request." See Section 19.35(1)(h), Wis. Stat.
Under Wisconsin law a request for access to a public record may not be refused "because the person making the request is unwilling to be identified or to state the purpose of the request." See Section 19.35(1)(i), Wis. Stats. You are being asked to provide the information called for below on a voluntary basis.
